

The Military Order of the World Wars

1 February 2021

Dear Scouting Executive,

Military Order of the World Wars chapters support the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) by recognizing scouting excellence by presenting MOWW's Eagle Scout, Venture Summit Award, and Sea Scout Quartermaster Award certificates of recognition. Chapters also assist Troops and Councils in community projects, badge programs, etc... To request a certificate and/or certificate presentation for a Scout who has obtained the highest Scouting award for their program, please email mgolden1775@gmail.com with the name of the Scout, Unit, and a contacts phone number and address.

As former scouts, myself an Eagle Scout, many of my colleagues and I know that the lessons derived from scouting experiences in good citizenship, effective leadership, and self discipline help in the preparation for adult responsibilities. The need is great for men and women who hold values as "duty to God and country," and "duty to others"... and for men who know the true meaning of "the good turn." The first eight words of the scout oath express a philosophy worthy of remembering as we tackle the many tasks and decisions that confront us every day of our lives. "On my honor I will do my best" has enormous meaning and can exert a potent influence for a meaningful future.

I know you will continue to do your best, and I wish you continued success in scouting and the pursuit of all future endeavors.

Patriotically,

Michael P. Golden, Capt., USMC (FMR)
Scouting Committee, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Chapter of NY
