

Hillary Alycon is a masters prepared clinical epidemiologist, board certified in Infection Control and Patient Safety. She has been with Glens Falls Hospital for four years during which time she has elevated her career from manager of Infection Control to Director, and in the spring she was promoted to Director of Infection Prevention & Quality Management. She has conducted numerous community and Glens Falls Hospital educational programs on the SARS-CoV2 Pandemic and was awarded “The Glennie Award” as a member of the GFH COVID-19 vaccine Implementation Team. She has made her permanent home here in Glens Falls taking advantage of the hiking, kayaking, and exploring the Adirondacks offer us.